DUNKELD

Business Events

Meeting spaces, exceptional dining and magnificent surrounds

Located a three hour drive from Melbourne, Royal Mail Hotel, Dunkeld is one of Victoria's premier regional conference and event venues.

Situated at the southern tip of the spectacular Grampians National Park, the hotel offers a one-of-a-kind experience with award-winning dining, quality accommodation, a range of event facilities and a selection of wine and nature-based experiences all set against an inspiring majestic landscape.

Just minutes from the main hotel complex is the historic, secluded Mt Sturgeon Farm, home of a grand 1800's Homestead and iconic Woolshed. Mt Sturgeon Farm is fully supported by the Royal Mail Hotel and is often used for exclusive board meetings, product launches and media events.

Wine Cellar

Impress your guests by immersing them in one of Australia's most revered collections of wine. Over 28,000 bottles line the space, including the Southern Hemisphere's largest collection of Bordeaux and Burgundy. This very special venue can be transformed into a pre-dinner dining space, team building activity location or to host sommelier led tours and tastings.

This space can be transformed into a private dining space, ideal for product launches, meetings, award ceremonies and special dinners.

Wickens at Royal Mail Hotel

The 2 hatted Wickens at Royal Mail Hotel fine dining restaurant has been noted as Australia's finest dining room. A 14 seat Private Dining Room or exclusive use of the venue is an option for your special event.

Parker Street Project

The relaxed space of Parker Street Project has flexibility to be used as a stand up cocktail venue, space for large group dining or presentations.

Sterling Place

For very large groups, we have access to a partner venue, Sterling Place, just 2 blocks from the Royal Mail Hotel.

Destination Dining at its Best

The Royal Mail Hotel is home to Australia's largest working restaurant kitchen garden. Up to 80% of the produce showcased on the various Royal Mail Hotel menus is grown on-site, and harvested daily by the kitchen team. The neighbouring farm supplies beef and lamb which are born and bred for use specifically in the Royal Mail Hotel, and further produce is grown and foraged for in surrounding orchards, olive groves and wild pastures.

To accompany the award winning food, the Royal Mail Hotel team are specialists in matching your dining experience with cocktails, local and imported wines and non-alcoholic garden inspired drinks.

We welcome all guests on tours of our kitchen garden and wine collection. These tours provide a behind the scenes peek into the workings of the Royal Mail Hotel and a chance to interact and learn from our chefs and sommeliers.
